1 INTRODUCTION 1
To Begin 2
The Risk Communication Process 5
Audiences, Situations, and Purposes 6
References 7

PART I UNDERSTANDING RISK COMMUNICATION

2 APPROACHES TO COMMUNICATING RISK 11
Communication Process Approach 12
National Research Council’s Approach 12
Mental Models Approach 13
Crisis Communication Approach 14
Convergence Communication Approach 15
Three-Challenge Approach 15
Social Constructionist Approach 16
Hazard Plus Outrage Approach 17
Mental Noise Approach 17
Social Network Contagion Approach 18
Social Amplification of Risk Approach 18
Social Trust Approach 19
Evolutionary Theory Approach 20
Extended Parallel Process Model Approach 20
Summary 21
References 21
Additional Resources 22

3 LAWS THAT MANDATE RISK COMMUNICATION 23
Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act 24
Executive Order 12898, Environmental Justice in Minority Populations 25
Executive Order 13045, Reduce Environmental Health and Safety Risks to Children 26
Food and Drug Administration Regulations on Prescription Drug Communication 28
National Environmental Policy Act 28
Natural Resource Damage Assessment 30
Occupational Safety and Health Act 30
Resource Conservation and Recovery Act 32
Risk Management Program Rule 32
Privacy Rule 32
Other Government Inducements 33
International Standards 33
North American Standards 34
Grants 34
Summary 35
References 35
Additional Resources 35

4 CONSTRAINTS TO EFFECTIVE RISK COMMUNICATION 37
Constraints on the Communicator 37
Organizational Constraints 38
Emotional Constraints 44
Constraints from the Audience 45
Hostility and Outrage 45
Panic and Denial 48
Apathy 48
Mistrust of Risk Assessment 49
Disagreements on the Acceptable Magnitude of Risk 50
Lack of Faith in Science and Institutions 50
Learning Difficulties 51
Constraints for Both Communicator and Audience 51
Stigma 52
Stability of the Knowledge Base 52
Summary 53
References 53
Additional Resources 55

5 ETHICAL ISSUES 57
Social Ethics 58
The Sociopolitical Environment’s Influence 58
The Use of the Risk Idiom 60
Fairness of the Risk 61
Consequences of Multiple Meanings 62
The Issue of Stigma 63
Organizational Ethics 63
Legitimacy of Representation 64
Designation of Primary Audience 65
Releasing Information 66
Attitude toward Compliance with Regulations 67
Personal Ethics 68
Using Persuasion 68
The Role of the Communicator 68
Organizational Ethics or Personal Ethics? 69
Summary 69
References 69
Additional Resources 70

6 PRINCIPLES OF RISK COMMUNICATION 71
Principles of Process 72
Know Your Communication Limits and Purpose 72
Whenever Possible, Pretest Your Message 73
Communicate Early, Often, and Fully 73
Remember That Perception Is Reality 74
Principles of Presentation 74
Know Your Audience 75
Do Not Limit Yourself to One Form or One Method 75
Simplify Language and Presentation, Not Content 75
Be Objective, Not Subjective 75
Communicate Honestly, Clearly, and Compassionately 76
Listen and Deal with Specific Concerns 76
Convey the Same Information to All Segments of Your Audience 77
Deal with Uncertainty 77
Principles for Comparing Risks 78
Use Analogies, but Do Not Trivialize 78
Use Ranges 79
Compare with Standards 79
Compare with Other Estimates of the Same Risk 80
Compare Traits 80
Do Not Compare Risks with Different Levels of Associated Outrage 80
Explain Reductions in Magnitude 81
Summary 81
References 81
Additional Resources 82

PART II PLANNING THE RISK COMMUNICATION EFFORT

7 DETERMINE PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES 85
Factors That Influence Purpose and Objectives 86
13 INFORMATION MATERIALS 147
Constructing Information Materials 147
Information to Be Included 147
Organizing Material for Information Materials 150
Language for Information Materials 150
Narrative Style in Information Materials 152
Guidelines for Specific Types of Information Materials 153
Newsletters 153
Pamphlets, Booklets, and Fact Sheets 154
Posters, Advertisements, and Displays 154
Articles 155
Technical Reports 156
Checklist for Information Materials 157
References 158
Additional Resources 158

14 VISUAL REPRESENTATIONS OF RISKS 159
Design Visuals for Specific Audiences and Uses 160
Match the Visual Portrayal to the Information to be Conveyed 162
Pretest Graphics with Those Who Will Use Them 164
Using Visuals to Personalize Risk Information 166
Comparing Risks in Visual Formats 167
Static versus Interactive Visuals 170
Depicting Probability and Uncertainty 172
Presenting Probability 172
Presenting Uncertainty 176
Probability plus Uncertainty 177
Warning Labels 180
Consider Using Action Levels 183
Ethical Portrayal of Risk Information 183
Using Visual Information in Group Decision Making 187
Checklist for Visual Representation of Risk 188
References 188
Additional Resources 190

15 FACE-TO-FACE COMMUNICATION 193
Constructing Face-to-Face Messages 194
Choose the Appropriate Spokesperson 194
Give the Audience Something to Take Away 197
Reinforce Your Message with Visual Aids 197
Speak in the Language of the Audience 197
Do Not Promise What You Cannot Deliver 197
Guidelines for Specific Types of Face-to-Face Communication 198
Speaking Engagements 198
Speakers Bureaus 199
Tours and Demonstrations 200
Video Presentations 201
Audience Interviews 203
Information Fairs 203
Training 204
Checklist for Face-to-Face Communication 205
References 206
Additional Resource 206

16 WORKING WITH THE NEWS MEDIA 207
The Roles of the News Media in Risk Communication 207
News Media Contrasted with Other Stakeholders 209
Productive Interaction, Not Polarization 209
Understanding “Cultural” Differences 210
The News Media Are Event Focused 211
Certain Kinds of Risks Get More Coverage 211
Journalistic Independence and Deadlines Affect Content 211
The Need for Balance Invites Opposing Views 212
23 PUBLIC HEALTH CAMPAIGNS 359
Understand Your Goals 360
Use Research to Design Campaigns 360
Use Multiple Methods to Reach People 361
News Media 361
Paid Placements and Independent Coverage 362
Online Interventions and Social Media 363
Other Methods 364
Evaluate Success 364
Checklist for Public Health Campaigns 366
References 366
Additional Resources 367

RESOURCES 369
General Risk Communication Resources 369
Environmental Risk Communication Resources 370
Safety Risk Communication Resources 371
Health Risk Communication Resources 371
Care Communication Resources 372
Consensus Communication Resources 372
Crisis Communication Resources 373

GLOSSARY 375

INDEX 379