Contents

Foreword ................................................. v
Preface ................................................... vii
Contributors ............................................. ix

Chapter 1 Introduction: IEHS Program Basics

George Byrns ........................................... 1

Chapter 2 Healthcare Occupational Hazards

George Byrns, Lee Shands and Christopher Janicak ........................................ 21

Chapter 3 Introduction to Infection Control

George Byrns and Mary Elkins ........................................ 75

Chapter 4 Antisepsis, Disinfection, and Sterilization

George Byrns ............................................ 107

Chapter 5 Healthcare Safety

George Byrns, George Stevens, Greg Heck, Christopher Janicak, Joyce Hood, Angel Boyce, and Denise Knoblauch ........................................ 129

Chapter 6 Environmental Management

George Byrns and Lee Shands ........................................ 173

Chapter 7 Emergency Preparedness

George Byrns and George Stevens ........................................ 193

Chapter 8 Indoor Air Quality in the Healthcare Environment

George Byrns, David Regelbrugge and Lee Shands ........................................ 219

Chapter 9 Waste Management

Lee Shands and George Byrns ........................................ 243

Chapter 10 Occupational and Environmental Health Surveys and Surveillance

George Byrns ............................................ 257
Chapter 11  Hazard Communication, Risk Communication and Social Marketing
George Byrns
271

Chapter 12  Prevention of Workplace Violence
George Byrns
291

Chapter 13 The Role of the Health and Safety Manager in Design and Construction Planning
George Byrns and Lee Shands
303

Chapter 14  Environmental Health and Safety Concerns in Nursing Homes
George Byrns
319

Chapter 15  Environmental Health and Safety Concerns in Colleges and Universities
Timothy Ryan
335

Appendix  Institutional Environmental Health and Safety Matrix
365

Glossary
367

Index
375