Subject: Invitation: 5-minute survey for Oakland University research—Leadership commitment to safety

Dear Greater Detroit Chapter Member,

The recession has hit our state hard. As a graduate student, I would like to know your opinion on leadership commitment to safety how/if it has been impacted by the recession.

Please take 5 minutes to complete this brief 7-question survey asking your opinion on how your leadership team demonstrates its commitment and understanding of safety.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THIS SURVEY

Thank you for participating in this research study. This survey has been designed as part of a class project for Oakland University’s Master of Science in Safety Management. The following 7-question survey should take approximately 5 minutes to complete. There are no foreseeable risks to you participating in this survey. While there is no compensation or other direct benefits for you, participating in this survey will build the body of knowledge needed for the field of safety to improve organizational leadership commitment to safety.

Your participation is voluntary. You may opt out of the survey at any time without penalty. All records are kept confidential. Your responses are anonymous. Precautions have been taken to ensure anonymity. IP addresses will not be collected during the online survey process. The researcher worked with SurveyMonkey to make sure that this feature is turned off on the SurveyMonkey platform.

For questions regarding survey content and purpose, you may contact Charles McGlothlin, program director, at 248-370-2664 or mcglotl@oakland.edu. Survey was designed by Rebecca Drzewiecki, graduate student, Master of Science in Safety Management (rjdrzewi@oakland.edu).

For questions regarding the rights of human subjects in research, you may contact Dr. Mary Stein, chair, Oakland University Institutional Review Board, 248-370-2762.
