Governor

United States

Benevolent to another nation of the independent of the year four thousand thirteen, the two hundred ten Friday the twenty-ninth day of April in the New Jersey, the Eminent High of the State of

GIVEN under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Injury and death in the workplace, counteract and arise the challenge of increasing awareness of the importance of preventing illness, in New Jersey and encourage all industries, organizations, community leaders, employers and

OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH PROFESSIONAL WEEK
AS
MAY 5 THROUGH MAY 11, 2013

Proclamation

NOW, THEREFORE, I, CHRISTE Connector of the State of New Jersey, do hereby

WHEREAS, I commend occupational safety, health and environmental professionals for their and decrease occupational injuries and

WHEREAS, it is an estimated daily in a work place and health program 5-6

WHEREAS, direct labor costs of injuries may be as much as 20 times the direct costs.

WHEREAS, occupational injuries more suffered occupational injuries and illnesses; and

WHEREAS, more than 4.3 million people die from occupational injuries in the United States annually

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
WHEREAS, the direct and indirect costs of injuries may be as much as 20 times the direct costs.

WHEREAS, in the recent past, businesses have spent about $1 trillion per week on costs associated with occupational injuries, health care and to injured employees and their medical providers - costs that take away from research and business growth and

WHEREAS, more than 400,000 people die from job-related injuries in the United States annually.