Top Stories

Nations Need Fellow

Society awards the highest honor that a professional member of ASSE can earn. The honor recognizes the past 50 years of leadership excellence in the field of safety engineering.

Linda Taup Named Safety Professional of the Year

ASSE has awarded the 2019 National Elderly Monitors Quarterly Award Professional of the Year to Linda Taup, a safety professional for the past 50 years. Taup was recognized at ASSE's Safety 2017 in San Antonio, Texas. Taup is currently the president of the ASSE chapter in the Greater Houston Area and has been involved in safety engineering for over 50 years.

Two Members Receive Capitol Volunteer Service Awards

Under the leadership of Vice President of Membership Development and Community Relations, John C. Sheehan, the ASSE Board of Directors recently recognized two outstanding ASSE members for their volunteer service contributions. The awards were presented in Washington, D.C., during the 2019 Capitol Volunteer Service Awards Program.

Chapter of the Year Awards

At the 2019 Fall Conference in Orlando, Florida, the ASSE Board of Directors announced the winners of the chapter of the year awards. The Central Valley Chapter (CA), Northern Nevada Chapter (NV) and Greater Houston Chapter (TX) were awarded the highest honors.

More News

ASSE Publishes Investigative Photography Book

ASSE Hosts Training Needs Assessment Audioconference

The ASSE Training Needs Assessment Audioconference is set for Monday, May 20, 2019, at 12:30 PM (ET). This audioconference is part of the ASSE Training Programs and offers the opportunity to learn about training needs assessment methods.

Fall Arrest Code Approved

The ASSE Fall Protection Code Committee has approved the Fall Protection Code (FPC) as a standard for the construction industry. The code includes requirements for personal protective equipment and fall protection systems.

Gold Coast Chapter Helps Florida High School Students Stay Safe

ASSE's Gold Coast Chapter recently sponsored a fall prevention course for students in elementary school grades 4-6. The course focused on reducing injuries related to falls and included hands-on activities to reinforce learning.

Improving Fleet Safety Symposium: Sept. 12-13

ASSE will host a symposium focused on improving fleet safety. The event will feature presentations from fleet safety professionals and include discussions on the latest trends and innovations in fleet safety.

You Might Want To Know

Call for Papers for Safety 2019

The ASSE Fall Conference and Expo will be held in San Antonio, Texas, from November 20-23, 2019. The call for papers is now open, and submissions are due by August 20, 2019.

Top Recruiters: Honor Roll

The latest additions to ASSE's Honor Roll.