

A Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Office of the County Executive for Prince George's County, Maryland wishes to recognize the American Society Of Safety Engineers on the occasion of their North American Occupational Safety and Health (NAOSH) Week Program; and

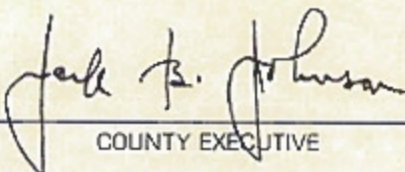

WHEREAS, every year more than 5500 people die from job-related injuries and millions more suffer occupational injuries and illnesses; and

WHEREAS, millions of people go to and return home from work safely due, in part to the efforts of many unsung heroes occupational safety, health and environmental practitioners who are working to identify hazards and implementing safety and health advances in industries and workplaces, aimed at eliminating workplace fatalities, injuries and illnesses; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of North American Occupational Safety and HealthWeek (NAOSH) is to increase the understanding of the benefits of investing in occupational safety and health and to reduce workplace injuries and illnesses by increasing awareness and implementation of safety and health programs.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JACK B. JOHNSON, COUNTY EXECUTIVE FOR PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY, MARYLAND, do hereby recognize and proclaim the May 1-7, 2005 as a day of celebration and recognition of the American Society of Safety Engineers North American Occupational Safety and Health (NAOSH) Week.
