Over 20 Topics Give You a Well-Rounded View
Throughout three education packed days, you will trade ideas with your peers and learn from today’s foremost leaders and thinkers. Safety 2016 gives you the opportunity to evaluate your current practices, develop new skills, revitalize your passion for the profession and build a powerful community of colleagues.
HIGHLIGHTS

CONTENT
Over 245 sessions covering 20 topics are presented by the best minds in the industry. Our sessions will help you take your safety skills to the next level.

EXPERIENCE
Sessions are identified by experience level: B = two to five years; I = six to 10 years; A = 10 years; E = executive level. Review the fundamentals or delve deeper into the topics that interest you most.

EXECUTIVE SUMMIT PANEL
The Executive Summit Panel, consisting of executives from a range of industries and organizations, provides you a valuable view of safety from the c-suite. Hear their insight on safety and the role of OSH professionals in their organizations. The stories and examples they share offer additional tools and strategies that can help you understand your role, overcome organizational obstacles and ultimately be more effective. Previous companies have included ABB, CITGO, Disney, Dow Chemical, Kraft, L.L. Bean, Lockton, Turner Construction, United Airlines and URS.

PLENARY SESSION
The Assistant Secretary of Labor for Occupational Safety and Health, David Michaels, Ph.D., is invited to discuss his insight on the key issues affecting safety and health professionals. This session will focus on the role that safety and health professionals can and should play in addressing these issues and will include questions from the audience.

ROUNDTABLES
Participate in engaging facilitated conversations that explore questions and issues that matter. Get ready to share your ideas, challenges and successes by tailored areas of interest.

NETWORKING
With over 5,000 OSH professionals, you could meet your next employer or discuss the answer to your challenges and issues. Networking is one of the top reasons to attend.

EXPOSITION
Discover products and services that will take your OSH programs to the next level by exploring our 500 company exposition.

WHEN THE SUN SETS
the Nightlife Heats Up
The epicenter of glamour and glitziest nightspots are in Atlanta. No matter what style of nightlife you’re craving, you’re sure to find it.

CATCHING FIRE
at the Atlanta History Center
The Atlanta History Center is an all-inclusive 32-acre destination featuring the Swan House that was used during the filming of the movie The Hunger Games: Catching Fire. It also includes the Atlanta History Museum, the Smith Family Farm, the Centennial Olympic Games Museum, the Kenan Research Center, the Grand Overlook event space, the Coca-Cola Café and acres of historic gardens and woodland trails.

BIKE, WALK, RUN OR DINE
on the Atlanta BeltLine
The Atlanta BeltLine is comprised of 22 miles of unused railroad tracks circling the core of the city’s in-town neighborhoods. From trails and walkways, open green space and parks, public art project and many dining options, the BeltLine is not to be missed.

STEP BACK IN TIME
at the Atlanta Cyclorama & Civil War Museum
Take a journey through time at the Atlanta Cyclorama & Civil War Museum. Sit at the center of a sweeping panorama of the Battle of Atlanta, fought on July 22, 1864, during the American Civil War. In addition to artifacts from the Civil War period, the Cyclorama of the Battle of Atlanta is the world’s largest oil painting, measuring 42 feet tall and 358 feet in circumference.

EMBODY THE SPIRIT OF GREAT ATLANTANS
at Oakland Cemetery
Pass through the gates of Oakland and you will discover Atlanta’s fascinating history, from the beginning. From a hilltop in Oakland Cemetery, General John B. Hood watched the Battle of Atlanta, and nearby lie soldiers among sculpture and architecture, ancient oaks and magnolias.

SWIM WITH WHALE SHARKS
at the Georgia Aquarium
You can actually snorkel or scuba dive with the whale sharks at the Georgia Aquarium. Interested in interacting with a slightly smaller animal? The nation’s largest aquarium offers encounters with dolphins, belugas, otters and even penguins!
WALK IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF GIANTS
at the MLK Historic Site
Walk in the footsteps of heroes at the International Civil Rights Walk of Fame, the only walkway to feature authentic shoe prints of civil rights pioneers, visit The King Center that includes inspirational materials including audio, video and the preserved writings of Dr. King, pay your respects at his original gravesite and current tomb, tour his boyhood home and so much more.

PLAY AT THE College Football Hall of Fame
The College Football Hall of Fame & Chick-Fil-A Fan Experience is a shrine to college football and the fans who love it. Registering your favorite team will allow interactive exhibits to know who you cheer for as soon as you walk up to it, and it shows you photos and videos for your specific team. It’s the closest you can get to that game day feeling without being on a campus.

MINGLE WITH MASTERS
at the High Museum of Art
Step inside the leading art museum in the Southeast and gaze at more than 13,000 classic, modern and contemporary works of art. Its main collection features Monet, Tournier, Tiepolo and Ernst amongst others, and renowned architecture by Richard Meier and Renzo Piano.

STOP AND SMELL THE BUTTERFLIES
at Atlanta Botanical Garden
Adjacent to Piedmont Park is the Atlanta Botanical Garden where you can explore more than 30 acres of breathtaking botanical bliss.

VISIT YOUR MUMMY
at Emory’s Michael C. Carlos Museum
With permanent collections that span the globe and renowned traveling exhibits, Emory’s Michael C. Carlos Museum will satisfy your inner history buff by everything from mummies to a Greek muse. Housed in a distinguished building by renowned architect Michael Graves, the museum maintains the largest collection of ancient art with objects from ancient Egypt, Greece, Rome, the Near East, and the ancient Americas.

SHOP AND DINE WITH CONVENIENCE
at Atlantic Station
An eclectic assortment of more than 50 shops reside in Atlantic Station, featuring a walkable streetscape-style setting with brick paved streets and a Central Park. Featuring great boutiques, sidewalk cafes, and hip restaurants, makes it the perfect destination for visitors.
